

I strongly oppose weakening of Indiana's law regarding the do not call list. That has been an effective privacy benefit to my family and we don't want those calls to resume.